

Open Records Information Provided By The Iowa Lottery In July 2018

(On average, responses were provided within 3 calendar days.)

On July 2, NuPoint Funding LLC of Boca Raton, Fla., requested a list of annuity winners from Jan. 1, 2018, to present. That same day, the Iowa Lottery provided one email with the requested information. There was no charge for this request.

On July 5, Seneca One of Bethesda, Md., requested a list of annuity winners from Jan. 1, 2003, to present. On July 9, the Iowa Lottery provided one email with the requested information. There was no charge for this request.

On July 6, Happy Medium of Des Moines requested copies of all proposals submitted for Iowa Lottery RFP 18-02 regarding advertising and related services. On July 16, the Iowa Lottery provided one email with two attachments containing the requested information. There was no charge for this request.

On July 18, Stone Street Capital LLC of Bethesda, Md., requested a list of annuity winners and any new or updated assignments from May 1, 2018, to present. That same day, the Iowa Lottery provided one email with the requested information. There was no charge for this request.

On July 23, the Des Moines Register requested historical data for Iowa Lottery annual sales and total prizes. That same day, the Iowa Lottery provided one email with the requested information. There was no charge for this request.

On July 25, the Des Moines Register requested Exhibits 10 and 11, which had been filed under seal in the Dawson litigation. A Polk County judge ruled that the documents, which had been covered by a protective order, could be released. On July 30, the Iowa Lottery provided one email with two attachments containing the requested information. There was no charge for this request.

On July 30, The Associated Press in Iowa City requested Exhibits 10 and 11 from the Dawson litigation after a Polk County judge ruled that the documents, which had been covered by a protective order, could be released. That same day, the Iowa Lottery provided one email with two attachments containing the requested information. There was no charge for this request.

On July 30, the Des Moines Register requested copies of the depositions of Terry Rich and Steve Bogle in the Culler/Dawson litigation. On Aug. 1, the Iowa Lottery confirmed for the newspaper that it did not have the deposition materials and directed the reporter to the Iowa Attorney General's Office, which is the records custodian in the matter.