Action Briefs

Reminder to Inspect Tickets When Cashing, Especially Pull-tab Tickets

Remember to check any lottery tickets presented to you to ensure that they have not been tampered with or altered, particularly pull-tab tickets.

All symbols on a winning ticket should match up as indicated in the game's play instructions. If you believe a ticket has been tampered with, please don't cash it. Contact your store security as appropriate or Lottery Security directly at 515-725-7900.

While lotto, scratch and InstaPlay tickets can be cashed at any location where Iowa Lottery tickets are sold, pull-tab tickets can only be cashed at the location they were purchased.

Keep any winning tickets you cash so they are taken out of circulation after the prize has been paid.

When a pull-tab ticket is presented, scan it on the lottery terminal to ensure it was sold at your business. After you've cashed a winning pull-tab ticket, deface it in some way so someone can't try to claim it again. Perhaps you can tear up the ticket, stamp it as "void," or use a marker to draw a line through all the tabs on the ticket.

Lotto and InstaPlay tickets run through the terminal will automatically be stamped with a "cashed" message. But if you scan them with the terminal's scanner, a retailer receipt will print out that you can attach to the ticket. Retailer receipts also are printed from the terminal when winning scratch tickets are scanned and the receipt can be attached to the ticket.

The lottery's statewide gaming system electronically records when lotto, InstaPlay and scratch tickets have been cashed so they can't be claimed again.

Word Match

Nebraska Man Wins $21,000 Playing Iowa's Pick 3 Game at Sapp Bros.

A Nebraska man admits he surprised his wife with his $21,000 lottery win, telling her that he had won a smaller prize and then having fun as he showed her his prize check for a much larger amount.

"I told her like I won some lottery prize like $5,000 or $6,000," Amit Gurung said after he claimed his prize. "I lied to her at first. I went back home and I showed her that prize and she's like, 'Oh you won $21,000, not $6,000!'"

Gurung, 31, of Papillion, Neb., won $21,000 in the evening Pick 3 drawing on June 15. He purchased seven straight wagers all on one ticket, meaning he won $3,000 on each play by matching all three winning numbers in the exact order selected: 3-6-4. Gurung said he played numbers representing the birth months of his two sons and the number of people in his family.

"The reason I play the 3-6-4 is '3' is my son's, second son, like March, you know. And the other one is June – that's the '6,'" he said. "And the '4' that's the four – me, my wife, and my two kids."

Gurung purchased his winning ticket at Sapp Bros. Oasis, 2608 S. 24th St. in Council Bluffs. ■
