Why it Matters: the Drawing Date vs. the Purchase Date on Tickets

Here's a tip we shared with a player this week who thought we'd reported the wrong winning numbers in Powerball® Drawing Date.

It turns out he was looking at the wrong date on his ticket.

In a game like Powerball, the date of the drawing where the ticket could win a prize is printed in large font right in the center of the paper, just above the plays that were bought.

The date that the ticket was purchased is in the upper right corner of the ticket, in a year-month-day format. You also can see the exact time that the ticket was printed. We provide those details as a security feature to help track and identify the ticket.

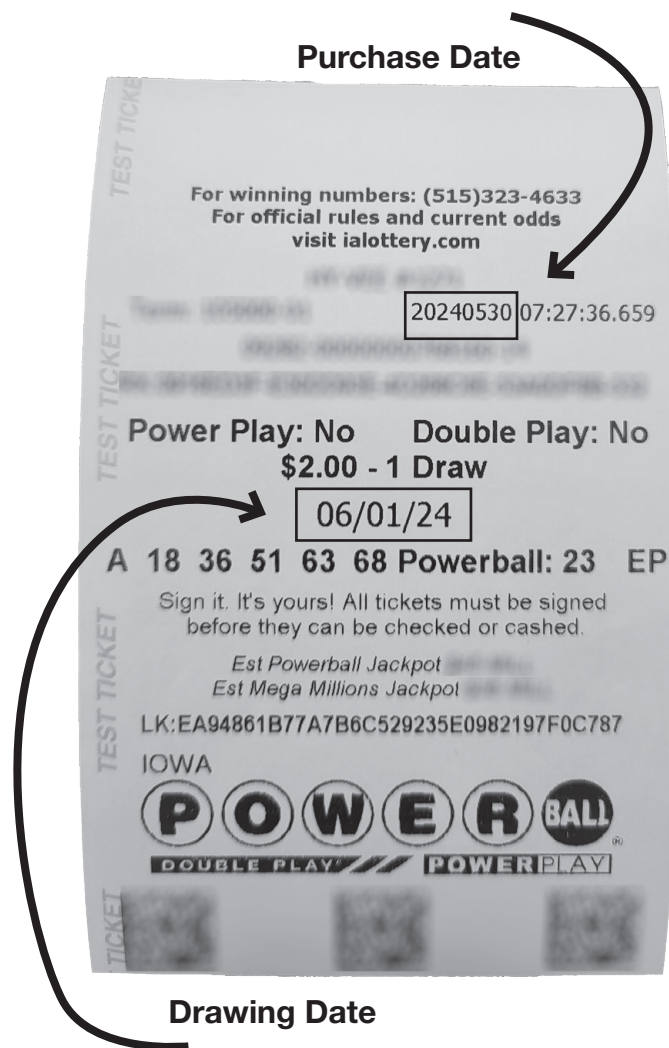

The player mistakenly thought that the purchase date on his ticket was the date of the drawing in which it could win a prize.

And when he went to our website to check the results of his ticket, he thought it should have won a prize. But when he scanned the ticket with the lottery's mobile app on his phone, he got a message saying it wasn't a winner.

We all can probably imagine ourselves in that situation. The man said he scanned his ticket several times, thinking that the results would change. He even took his ticket to a store to have it scanned on the lottery terminal to double-check the results provided by the mobile app. Every time, the results showed that his ticket had not won a prize.

The man then emailed us to ask if something had gone wrong with the results we reported for the drawing. We were able to figure out that he was looking at the wrong date on his ticket, and then he understood the difference!

The same details apply to tickets in any of our lotto games, not just Powerball —the others being Mega Millions®, Lotto America®, Lucky for Life®, Pick 3 and Pick 4.

If you run into a similar situation with a player, be aware that they may in fact be confusing the dates on their ticket.

Big Changes Underway in InstaPlay Games

Ten new games are hitting the market this month. The revamp of our InstaPlay line started a couple months ago when we introduced a few new games. It continued in October when we debuted our first holiday-themed InstaPlay tickets.

Now in the next few weeks, you'll see another ten new InstaPlay games hitting the market as some older games end. That approach is similar to the schedules we use for scratch and pull-tab games – as new games are introduced, sales end in older games that have been on the market for some time.

The big difference on the InstaPlay side has to do with progressive-jackpot games.

New Games:

- $20 on the Spot (game #165)
- Fast Cash Bingo (game #164)
- Plus the Cash (game #163)
- Crazy Wild Cash (game #162)
- Ultimate Winning (game #161)
- Top Dollar (game #160)
- Big Money Doubler Progressive (game #169)
- Hot Ticket Progressive (game #168)
- Xtreme Multiplier Progressive (game #167)
- Blank Check Progressive (game #166)

As the new games are introduced, some existing InstaPlay games will leave the market.

Ending dates are solid for the InstaPlay games with set prize amounts that are leaving the market. But the exact date that the Iowa Lottery plans to end an InstaPlay progressive game is dependent upon its jackpot being won.

To be fair to our players, we don't want to end an InstaPlay game while its progressive jackpot is still growing. Someone should get to win it!

So, for example, the Cherry Twist Progressive game was put on the game-ending schedule on October 19, but it's still for sale because its current jackpot hasn't been hit yet!

Sales ended October 19 in these three InstaPlay games with set prize amounts:

- Lucky Gems (game #140)
- Bullseye Doubler (game #145)
- Triple Play (game #147)

As we move ahead, we anticipate it will become the norm for new InstaPlay games to regularly start and older games to end.

After Finishing Chemo, Cedar Falls Woman Wins $25,000 Lottery Prize

Lily Miller Claims Top Prize in 'X-tra Bingo' Game

A Cedar Falls woman who won $25,000 said her big lottery win followed some other incredible news.

"I found out that I was cancer-free the same week that I won on the ticket," Lily Miller said on Tuesday as she claimed her prize at the lottery's Cedar Rapids regional office. "I was already in shock with the first bit, and then I was like, 'There's no way I won the lottery on top of it!' What are the odds?"

Miller, 24, won the 12th top prize in the Iowa Lottery's "X-tra Bingo" scratch game. She bought her winning ticket at Mini Mart, 1420 W. First St. in Cedar Falls.

She scratched the ticket at home and couldn't believe her luck when she reached the game's top prize level. Even after scanning the ticket with the Iowa Lottery mobile app to reveal a $25,000 prize, she remained skeptical.

"I still didn't really believe it because that's a lot of money!" Miller said. "I had to reach for my glasses and put them back on because I convinced myself I wasn't counting the zeros right. I took a screenshot and zoomed in as far as I could. I'm like, 'OK, that's three zeros after the number 25. Holy cow!'"
